Emeritus Professor Elizabeth Webby

State Library of New South Wales Keynote

Elizabeth Webby is a literary critic, editor and scholar in the field of literature. Her publications include Early Australian Poetry (1982), Modern Australian Plays (1990) and the edited volumes Colonial Voices (1989), The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature (2000) and The Academy Edition of Rolf Boldrewood's Robbery Under Arms (edited with Paul Eggert, 2006). She is a fellow of the Australian Academy of the Humanities and edited their journal Humanities Australia from 2010-17. In 2003 she received both the Centenary Medal and the Association for the Study of Australian Literature's AA Phillips Award. In 2004 she was appointed a Member of the Order of Australia for her contribution to Australian literary culture.

Aunty Sandra Lee

Aboriginal Elder on Campus, (Traditional Owner) and Darug Elder (Boorooberongal clan)

Aunty Sandra is a proud Darug Elder and descendant of Gomebeeree, chief of the Boorooberongal clan of the Darug nation. Aunty Sandra continues to promote Darug heritage and culture with her family's centuries-old connections to the Blacktown area. In acknowledgement of her vast contributions to the area, In 2012, Aunty Sandra received a University of Western Sydney Community Award, was a joint winner of the Blacktown International Women of The Year award and also received Life Membership of the Western Sydney Community Forum. Aunty Sandra is a strong advocate of First Peoples sovereignty, changes to the Native Title legislation, education and the welfare of Aboriginal youth.
